Paul Victor Kelly Sex: Male

Date of Birth: 23/05/1961 Married, one daughter

Education:

Methodist College Belfast: - 1979

University of Durham: 1979 – 82, Joint Honours Mathematics and Physics (2:1)

Fellow of the Faculty of Actuaries in Scotland: 1986

Birkbeck College, University of London: 2010-14, Joint Honours History and Archaeology (1st, Prize for best undergraduate)

Birkbeck College, University of London: 2015, MA in Classical Civilisation (Distinction, Hobsbawm Scholar)

King's College London: 2016 - , PhD Student, subject 'Risk and Return in Roman Egypt', LAHP-funded.

Publications:

Roman Loans: Dealing with Debt in the Roman Empire, History Today, December 2017.

Professional Positions:

1982 -2002: Consulting actuary (Dublin, London, Brussels, Paris)

2002-2004: Director of Pensions, Vodafone Group

2004-2015: Director, International Consulting, Towers Watson, London

2015- : Chair, Daily Management Committee, GE European Pension Fund

Professional – Other:

Past: Chair International Committee: Association of Consulting Actuaries, Principal Examiner: Pensions Management Institute, Representative of the UK profession on Pensions Committee of Actuarial Association of Europe, Member of Pensions and International Committees of Institute and Faculty of Actuaries

Current: Representative of UK and European Actuarial professions on Occupational Pensions Stakeholder Group of EIOPA, Frankfurt.